

◀ Interior designers Gunter & Co took a glamorous approach to this cloakroom, opting for a gold Perosa basin from William Holland and Style Moderne wall-mounted taps from Samuel Heath. The coordinating mirrors and lights were sourced from antique markets and online. Construction work was by Emerald Bay (www.emerald-bay.co.uk). Prices for a similar design are available on application. 020 7993 8583 or www.gunterandco.com

▶ For this cloakroom interior designer Tamzin Greenhill created a bespoke basin vanity unit made from travertine with brass legs and matching mixer tap, which contrasts well with the deep Basalt 221 paint from Little Greene on the wall. The statement mirror is by William Emmerson for Ralph Pucci. Prices are available on application. www.tamzingreenhill.com

▼ The Pier wall-hung WC has one of the shortest projections on the market – at just 43cm – and is ideal for those particularly small spaces. Priced at £580, it has a soft-close seat and is available from Bauhaus. 0845 873 8840 or www.bauhaus-bathrooms.co.uk

Little mix

Make an impact in even the smallest of spaces with these clever and compact ideas for cloakrooms

Words: Yvette Murrell

▶ Bringing an industrial look to your cloakroom, this wire rack is as on trend as it is practical, featuring three cubies for storage and four hooks to hang towels. Available from Cox & Cox, it is priced £30. 0330 333 2123 or www.coxandcox.co.uk

▲ From Utopia's Roseberry fitted bathroom range, shown are the Modern Victoriana reduced-depth vanity and WC units. With finishing touches of ivory quartz solid-surface tops and Vintage Fleur floor tiles, the complete look costs approximately £3378. 01902 406402 or www.utopiagroup.com

► You need very few elements in a cloakroom, so you can afford to make a statement with your basin. Devon&Devon's Serenade console, shown here with a white ceramic top and legs, is priced £1720 and is also available in black or with metallic legs. The Fairy mirror, £968, and Armonia towel warmer, £1785, are also from Devon&Devon. 020 7221 5137 or www.devon-devon.com

◀ Using colourful patterned tiles on both the floor and the wall can really make an impact. "The overall look is dramatic, deep and really draws visitors into a room which would otherwise be overlooked as a mere 'downstairs toilet'," says Eleanor Heaton-Armstrong from Day True. Day True chose Popham Design tiles, priced from £175 per sq m, the Sfera wall-hung WC by Catalano, £430, Burlington basin and stand, £580, and Totti three-hole basin mixer by Crosswater, £228. 020 7788 9229 or www.daytrue.com

► Spruce up a plain cloakroom with a playfully patterned floor tile. Julia Grey porcelain tiles from Stone & Ceramic Warehouse each measure 20 x 20cm, priced from £102 per sq m. 020 8993 5545 or www.sacw.co.uk

◀ A traditional high-level WC creates a bold look for a cloakroom with the added bonus that it lifts the cistern out of the way. Prices for a complete WC from Thomas Crapper start from £2789, but expect to pay around £4639 for a solid brass cistern as shown. The small basin and taps, also from Thomas Crapper, are priced £945. 01789 450522 or www.thomas-crapper.com

▲ This simple Hula mirror from Loaf has added functionality, doubling up as a handy shelf for essential toiletries. Shown here in white, it measures 70cm in diameter and is priced £165. 0845 468 0698 or www.loaf.com

◀ The Urban collection from BagnoDesign has a simple yet sophisticated look and includes a wall-mounted vanity unit (shown), with two drawers. It is available in 77.5cm and 97.5cm widths and priced from £1195. Also shown is the Urban circular countertop basin and matching wall-hung WC, each priced £365. 01924 233977 or www.bagnodesignlondon.com

▲ The Laura Ashley Pavilion range from Roper Rhodes includes a compact ceramic basin, £197, and a back-to-wall WC, priced from £443, which comes with a soft-close wooden seat in gloss white (as shown), black or pale oak.
01225 303900 or visit www.roperrhodes.co.uk

▼ Geberit's iCon XS series was designed especially for small spaces. Pictured is the wall-hung WC, £377, with soft-close seat, £148, and a Sigma20 flush plate in white, £80. The matching basin with tap, £85, is set on top of a vanity unit in high-gloss white, £370. The room is completed with storage side unit, £404, and frameless illuminated mirror, £596.
0800 077 8365 or www.geberit.co.uk

▼ A corner basin makes great use of otherwise wasted space. The Gemme corner basin from The Albion Bath Company, priced £366, measures 50 x 36cm and has been designed to fit a monobloc tap.
01255 831605 or www.albionbathco.com

◀ Make the most of the space you have by choosing items with a dual purpose. Not only does a vanity unit conceal the pipework to minimise clutter, but it is also good for storage. Catalano's New Light basin unit is available in four colourways, from £491, and is shown here in Seta Matt with complementary basin, priced £186.
www.catalano.co.uk

▲ When choosing a cloakroom basin, John Evans of John Evans Design recommends ensuring there is space both above and below. "A bowl on a shelf and the clever use of a large mirror can extend the look of the space".
020 7252 2392 or www.johnevansdesign.com

◀ The cloakroom is a prime opportunity to make bolder styling decisions than you may do elsewhere in your home. After all, it's the one room all your guests will see. Pictured is the luxurious Lotus BP 2019 wallpaper, available in 14 colourways, priced from £112 per roll from Farrow & Ball.
01202 876141 or www.farrow-ball.com