Berry Crush

Put together a medley of rich raspberries, deep plum reds and pops of cherry for a home bursting with this season's flavourful colour palette

Powerful pinks are taking over this season – you only have to look at the AW22 fashion catwalks to see Barbiecore everywhere. These sweet tones are making their way into the latest home décor collections, too. But if you want to avoid your home looking too much like a Dreamhouse playset, we suggest paring down these bright pinks with some more subdued shades. Combining shades of mulberry, plum, raspberry and redcurrant can create a truly satisfying scheme. Cherry-pick your favourite parts of this trend, whether it's paint by Benjamin Moore, or Berry wardrobes from Mustard.
